

Structure of a Private Reading Checklist

Please evaluate the medium with complete honesty.

Introduction: Before the Reading
1	The medium makes the sitter feel comfortable, smiles and shows compassion.	Yes	No Somewhat
2	The medium checks to see if sitter has had a reading before.	Yes	No Somewhat
3	The medium explain what to expect from the reading and how to answer the medium.	Yes	No Somewhat
4	The medium checks to see if there are any questions before starting.	Yes	No Somewhat
5	The medium read a disclaimer. (optional)	Yes	No Somewhat
Content: During the Reading
6	The medium identifies spirit communicator leaving no doubt who was communicating with the medium?	Yes	No Somewhat
7	The medium provide evidence of the spirit communicator in details? Example: personality, where they lived, hobbies, career, relationship to you, how they passed	Yes	No Somewhat
8	The medium went beyond generic evidence. Generic evidence examples: hair, height, loves you, clothing, etc.	Yes	No Somewhat
9	The medium provide names or significant dates around you or your loved one.	Yes	No Somewhat
10	Did the medium provide a specific memory unique the sitter and the spirit communicator.	Yes	No Somewhat
11	The medium left the sitter feeling uplifted or encouraged?	Yes	No Somewhat
12	The medium made a psychic connection and informed the sitter it was coming from their psychic faculty.	Yes	No Somewhat
Closing: After the Reading
13	The medium ask if there were any questions at the end of the reading.	Yes	No Somewhat
14	The medium ask the sitter was happy with the reading and thanked them for coming?	Yes	No Somewhat

How did you do?

Celebrate the key areas when you were shining like a star! List the areas where you did really well here:

There's always room for improvement. Think carefully about which two areas will help you reach your next goal post and list them here. Write an action plan or steps to take on how to achieve your goals.

